LIBER 21 PAGE 5

- (b) The power to purchase or otherwise acquire real estate and to exercise the same powers thereover as hereinbefore provided with respect to the other real estate of my estate.
- (c) The power to invest and reinvest in such stocks, bonds and investments as are known as "legal investments for trustees" in Pennsylvania, and to sell and transfer the same, either in person or by attorney, without liability on the part of the purchaser or purchasers to see to the application of the purchase or consideration moneys.
- (d) The power to purchase securities at a premium, to amortize the premium out of income, or to charge the same to principal or income, or partly to principal and partly to income, as they shall deem best.
- (e) The power to exercise any option to subscribe for stocks, bonds or other investments.
- (f) The power to join in any plan of lease, mortgage, consolidation, exchange, reorganization or foreclosure of any corporation in which the estate may hold stocks, bonds or other securities.

one (21) years after the death of my youngest grandchild living at the time of my death, and upon such termination, distribution of the corpus and of any undistributed income of the said trust estate shall be made to my descendants then living, according to the intestate laws of the State of Pennsylvania.

THIRD: That the said testator left him surviving four children who with their children and descendants are as follows:

- (1) George Wallace Davis, Jr., his son, trustee as aforesaid, who is now living and who intermarried with and is now the husband of Virginia B. Davis, and who has two children, George Wallace Davis III, born August 18, 1926, who has intermarried with Barbara S. Davis and who has two children, George Wallace Davis IV, born June 10, 1951, and Bryan S. Davis, born November 3, 1952, who are both unmarried; and a daughter, Ann D. Knapp, who was born in or about the year 1921 and who has intermarried with and is now the wife of Edgar I. Knapp, and who has two children, David Bryan Knapp, born February 10, 1944, and Victoria D. Knapp, born January 15, 1951, who are both unmarried.
- (2) Harold W. Davis, a son, who has intermarried with and is now the husband of Grace Davis, and who has no children or issue.
- (3) Kathleen D. Harris, a daughter, who intermarried with Robert H. Harris; and the said Kathleen D. Harris died on June 17, 1953, leaving